

CoBank Sharing Success Grant Application

The annual “CoBank Sharing Success” grant opportunity, capped at $10,000, is made possible by Victory Electric’s governing board of trustees, in partnership with CoBank – a national nonprofit cooperative bank owned by the rural American cooperatives it services, including Victory Electric. The matching grant program is designed to celebrate the vital role that cooperatives play in individual communities across the country. CoBank states that partnering with their customers to support worthy causes they care about is a great way for them to make a positive difference and fulfill its mission of service to rural America. Applications are due to Jerri Imgarten by July 26, 2018.
